

CURRICULUM VITAE

Louise Macours
Research assistant

Flemish Peace Institute
Leuvenseweg 86, B-1000 Brussel louise.macours@vlaamsparlement.be <http://www.vlaamsvredesinstituut.eu>

Louise (°1999) works as a research assistant at the Flemish Peace Institute. She supports projects with a research focus on firearms and radicalisation, and contributes to the practical and administrative coordination of the institute's outreach activities. Louise studied at Ghent University, where she obtained a bachelor's and master's degree in Communication Sciences and a master's degree in Conflict and Development Studies. After her studies, she completed an internship at the Unrepresented Nations and Peoples Organization (UNPO) in Brussels, before joining the Flemish Peace Institute in July 2025.

Career

- Research Assistant, Flemish Peace Institute (July 2025 – present)
- Internship, Unrepresented Nations and Peoples Organization (UNPO) (2024–2025)
- Internship, Film Fest Gent (2022)

Degrees

- Preparatory Programme and Master's in Conflict and Development Studies – Ghent University (2022–2024)
- Master's in Communication Sciences, specialisation in Film and Television Studies – Ghent University (2021–2022)
- Bachelor's in Communication Sciences – Ghent University (2018–2021)